Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, It has been recognized that the cornerstone of South Dakota is the strength and vitality of each community and their individual commitment to COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota communities have demonstrated the ability to organize themselves for future development, improve basic services, and expand business opportunities; and,

WHEREAS, A number of communities have undertaken a comprehensive approach to self-evaluation and goal development through the GOLD (Guide to Opportunity for Local Development) Program; and,

WHEREAS, Several communities have pledged to implement a long-term MAIN STREET revitalization strategy which relies on the organization, promotion, design, and economic restructuring of the community; and,

WHEREAS, South Dakota communities and counties have gained greater self-confidence and expertise through the development and successful implementation of locally initiated community projects:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 24-31, 1989, as in South Dakota, and ask the citizens of this state to participate in ceremonies and activities celebrating COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT WEEK.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Twenty-Second Day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Nine

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
